Kansas Supports & Training for Employing People Successfully (STEPS), through Public Partnerships LLC (PPL) is required to conduct or obtain background checks to determine if you are eligible to provide services for payment as an employee of a program Member.

These background checks are known as consumer reports. In some cases, PPL gets background checks from a Consumer Reporting Agency (CRA). The KS STEPS program, through PPL, will run the following background checks.

- HireRight, LLC
- The Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) Offender Registry (“KBI Check”)
- The Kansas Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services Adult Abuse, Neglect, Exploitation Central Registry
- The Kansas Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services Kansas Child Abuse and Neglect Central Registry
- Kansas Nurse Aide Registry
- KDADS Health Occupations Credentialing
- Motor Vehicle Screen – Driver’s License or State ID#: 0c22a145-5
- Office of Inspector General (OIG)

KS STEPS and the Member have the right to not employ a person based on:

- The results of this request
- Any details they become aware of related to Medicaid fraud or financial abuse

By signing below, you are giving KS STEPS, through PPL, and/or the CRA your consent to conduct, obtain, and share the results of the background check. This will be on an ongoing basis as a condition of:

- Providing services to the Member
- Receiving payment with public funds as an employee of the Member
